

How to Choose Good Male Masturbation Toys

A lot of guys don't know it, but there are actually a lot of great masturbation toys for men out there. While most of us just get by with our hands, there's no reason to be so limited, especially when you can get some of the best orgasms by using toys. A lot of guys think they're real crafty and try to make home made masturbation toys. While it's possible, it'd be pretty hard to match the quality offered by some of the best masturbation toys out there.

One product you couldn't hope to match with homemade masturbation toys is the Autoblow. This is one of the most amazing male masturbation toys you'll ever find. It's basically a silicone sheath with beads like those you see on the fancier vibrators a lot. The cool part is that it has a motor that causes the thing to go up and down, so it gives the feel of a chick going down on you or thrusting into you while you're inside her. So you can just relax while the Autoblow services you. Try doing that with homemade masturbation toys.

Another one of the popular masturbation toys for men is the Fleshlight. What makes this one special is the "Real Skin" technology which makes it feel just like you're going inside a real woman. It also has a wide variety of unique internal textures that can feel like different parts (pussy, mouth or butt) and be as tight or loose as you want. If you don't want to go the extra mile and get something automatic, remember that the Fleshlight is one of the most popular masturbation toys for a good reason.

Then there's the Aneros. This toy is specially designed by doctors and scientists to stimulate the male prostate, using your own movements to help with the stimulation. Good luck getting the "super orgasms" that the Aneros offers from home made masturbation toys.
